Dear Eagle Drivers,

I wanted to reach out to all of our Eagle family to let you know that during these times of fear and uncertainty I understand the pressure you are under as drivers. Please remember that you, as a professional driver, are now more than ever the backbone of America. Trucking is a vital and essential industry, and now America needs us more than ever and depends on you to deliver the goods that we all rely on.

I urge all Eagle drivers to stand up and help America in its time of need. And as always, all of our Eagle staff is here to support you in any and all ways possible. We appreciate you as a part of the Eagle family and want you to know we are here and we will all get through this together.

Sincerely,
